Alliance Home Health is accredited by the Community Health Accreditation Program (CHAP)

Company Profile

Hospice Alliance of Idaho was founded November 11, 2002. The company was built with a simple mission to focus on giving excellent patient care. This focus quickly launched Alliance as the fastest growing Homecare Company in the area, expanding into three states within three years with 13 offices, serving over 3000 patients in a single year.

Over the past eight years the company has continued to grow and in 2006 added Home Health and Home Assist to the services offered. Alliance Home Health received their CHAP (Community Health Accreditation Program) certification in August of 2008. A name change took place to indicate the full service spectrum of Alliance's offering. Alliance is a privately held Idaho Limited Liability company, is managed locally, is Medicare and Medicaid Certified and a participating provider for several health insurance plans. Alliance is an Equal Opportunity employer.

The staff's combined clinical service in the Home Health and Hospice market makes them uniquely qualified to provide the highest level of care and compassion to Alliance patients. You can trust Alliance. Alliance's reputation is built on trust.

Alliance Home Health, Hospice and Home Assist's mission is to promote and maintain the independence and well being of individuals and families in the communities we serve. Alliance brings care to the home with a coordinated and comprehensive array of health services and products that meet and exceed patient care needs.

Alliance operates to a rigid code of ethics. For a copy, please visit our website.
